

HANSEN FAMILY MUSIC EXCELLENCE SCHOLARSHIP - Faculty Assessment

Please complete this form by Thursday, March 7th, 2024 at 11:59PM.

PURPOSE

The guiding purpose of the Hansen Family Music Excellence Scholarship is to recognize both the excellence of the HCHS Music Department and of its students. Three (3) graduating HCHS Music Department seniors will each receive a $2,000 merit-based scholarship grant. Each recipients will represent a different HCHS Music Department Performance Area - Vocal, Orchestral & Band ("Performance Area(s)"). Although applicants to the Scholarship (an "Applicant") can only apply once and can only be selected for one Performance Area, the Applicant's work in multiple Performance Areas can be considered.

As a HCHS Faculty member, an Applicant has identified you as having agreed to do their HCHS Faculty Assessment (the "Assessment"). The Selection Committee believes strongly that only through your truly valued guidance can the overall academic achievement, leadership, commitment and character of the Applicant be fairly evaluated.

RECIPIENT SELECTION CRITERIA

As a HCHS Faculty Member, we are asking you to provide the Selection Committee with your evaluation of the Applicant based on four key criteria:

1. Solid academic achievement - both in overall and in HCHS Music Department studies;
2. Leadership as shown in HCHS Music Department Performance Area groups ("HCHS Performance Groups");
3. Commitment to pursuing excellence in their own musical abilities; and
4. Personal integrity, trustworthiness, ethical character and a willingness to assist other musicians.

Please note that there is no minimum GPA requirement; but, dedication to academic efforts and progress must be shown.
